The Echoes Team

***PRESS RELEASE***

The 3rd annual Echoes Magical Music Festival offers a friendly music experience as a prelude to Canada Day. From June 27th to June 30th 2008, Echoes assembles over 22 different performances, such as Skarazula from Montreal, Tim Smith, Lindsay Ferguson, and Tony Turner for three days in a vibrant, intimate and interactive environment.

Original workshops with performers allow you the opportunity to perfect your craft and mingle with kindred spirits. There is also a Bardic Competition and times for you to show off your talents in an encouraging and accepting community.

Part music festival—part camping experience, Echoes is held at the Whispering Pines Campground, located just outside of Curran, ON. Admission includes full access to the festival performances and camping. Children under six free! Boasting a wonderful sandy beach off a small lake, an in-ground pool and a children's play area. Whispering Pines also has other amenities of our natural environment to enjoy! Echoes Festival offers a great camping experience and fabulous grass roots local music. Kind of like an organized, child friendly, Woodstock in the woods with fireworks for Canada's Birthday!
